COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

Meet Today At the Court House—
Water Commissioners For Ysleta
—Committee Appointed To Map
Out Roads.

At the meeting of the county commissioners at the court house this morning, B. Alderete, James Cooper, Sat. Carbajal, Francisco Gonzales and James Buchanan were appointed a committee of review to lay out roads from El Paso, Ysleta and Socorro to Hondo tanks.

Sat. Carbajal, B. Alderete and Esteban Serna were appointed water commissioners for Ysleta.

Faustino Cordero was appointed alcalde for the San Elizario irrigation system and also poundkeeper of Clint, La Cuadrilla and the San Elizario irrigation districts.

The bill presented to the commissioners for guaranteeing expenses was laid over until the next meeting for the reason that the general fund scrip is very low. By the next meeting the taxes will help out.

The commissioners adjourned until this afternoon to give Judge Harper time to get the bills in order for their reconsideration.

All bids were laid over until the February meeting, when the commissioners met this afternoon. Several routine reports were read.

HE STOLE THE CLOTHES.

Eli Franklin Then Became Rash And Wore Them And the Owner Identified Them.

There is to be a grand colored cake walk this week. Evidently Eli Franklin has been looking forward to it for a long time. Eli is a gentleman of color and in December of last year was in the employ of J. N. Ward, at the latter's home on San Antonio street.

When Franklin left, several suits of clothes also seemed to have walked away from Mr. Ward's wardrobe and could not be accounted for. Yesterday he saw Franklin on the street wearing one of the missing suits of clothes, and notified Officer Taylor who promptly arrested Franklin.

This morning Franklin, accompanied by Mr. Ward and Deputy Constable Gray, went to the Jockey club saloon, and there pointed out another negro wearing one of the missing suits of clothes. Then the party went to Franklin's home, and another pair of trousers was pulled out from a hiding place in the wall.

Franklin is in the county jail, and will be tried before Judge Spencer.

SHORT HORN CATTLE,

On January 20th, 1900,
at MIDLAND, TEXAS.

We will sell to the highest bidder for cash 125 head of Kentucky-Panhandle bred Short Horn Cows, Heifers and Yearling Bulls—

Thoroughbred, But Not Registered.

These Cows were selected from the best herds in Central Kentucky in the spring of 1897, and have since been held on our Staked Plains Ranch, near Panhandle, Texas.

They are acclimated to Western conditions. Last winter, severe as it was, many of our cattle wintered on the Staked Plains

Without Feed or Shelter.

They have been with the very best Registered Bulls all summer and are believed to be in calf. The heifers and bulls were bred on our Staked Plains Ranch, and are able to stand the extremes of the weather without loss. These cattle are good rich colors. They are not fat, but will be sold in grass flesh, being in prime breeding condition. It is from this class of Cows that the $5 and $7 cattle in the markets are drawn. For early maturity and heavy weights no cattle equal the Short Horn. They will be sold without reserve or by bid. Arrangements have been perfected to sell under shelter in case of inclement weather.

NEW CHURCH BUILDING DEDICATED

By the Congregationalists At El

Valle De San Buenaventura,

State Of Chihuahua.

Last week Rev. A. C. Wright, of the Congregational Training School and Rev. J. D. Eaton, D. C., of Chihuahua, returned from a successful trip into the interior of the state of Chihuahua, where they went to assist in the dedication of a new church building in El Valle de San Buenaventura.

The building has been erected without cost to the mission, almost entirely by one man, a member of the Congregational church in that place, but who has been nearly eight years in accomplishing his object. The edifice is of adobe, 75x30 feet inside measurements, with a neat arch of about 40 feet in height in the front, in which is a bell weighing 500 lbs. The seating capacity is about 300.

Dr. Eaton took his stereopticon with him, and the journey was so arranged that services were held Thursday night in Nueva Casa Grande, Friday night in Galeana, Saturday, Sunday and Monday nights in El Valle de San Buenaventura, as well as three other services in seven days, besides traveling 300 miles by rail, and 110 by wagon. The audiences varied from 70 to 225.

Returned To El Paso.

Mrs. Charles DeGroff left this morning for El Paso, having completed the sale of the Orndorff hotel equipment and the delivery of a lease of the hotel to Burt Orndorff and E. J. Tripple, the new management. Mrs. DeGroff, who is interested in the growth of Tucson, noted many improvements since her last visit. To her it appears that while the east end as far as the university grew, the old section would grow too. It will be Mrs. DeGroff's pleasure to visit Tucson in the spring. Her son Lee left yesterday and will be one of the clerks in the Orndorff at El Paso.—Tucson Star.

Unique Masonic Incident.

A dispatch from Durban, South Africa, says: "At a Masonic meeting it was found that the master and all of the officers of the lodge had been killed in action. Consequently the charter and regalia could not be kept, as there was not any one who could be held responsible by the craft. It is supposed that this is unique in the annals of masonry."

Dr. Fflan has removed his office from 203 Texas street to El Paso street opposite Grand Central hotel. Free consultation and examination on Sundays. Specialties, rectal and chronic diseases.
